CHRISTOPHER CHANG
JOINS OLD MISSION INVESTMENT AND TRUST

Old Mission Investment and Trust is pleased to announce the addition of Christopher Chang to the advisory group at Old Mission Investment and Trust.

Chris Chang will join the firm as a Senior Vice President of Investment Management and a Chief Investment Officer. Previously, Chris was affiliated with the private trust department at Fifth Third Bank

Chris has been involved in the investment management business since 1988, previously affiliated with firms in New York and San Francisco, serving in both a trading and investment management role. He moved to Traverse City in 2006 and accepted a position as a portfolio manager with Huntington Bank, then transitioning to a senior portfolio management position with Fifth Third Bank for the past 15 years. He is a graduate of Colgate University with a degree in Economics.

His affiliation with Old Mission Investment and Trust will further enhance the portfolio management capabilities of the firm, drawing on Chris' 33 years of investment experience. Chris will continue to serve his clients, families, and relationships in the same capacity as he did previously, with additional flexibility and control only found at a private firm.
